Diversity, Inclusion and Social Justice: Strategies for Inclusion

Hosted by London South Bank University and The University of Southampton
One Day Conference Thursday 18th March 2010

Location: Conference Suite 8th floor Keyworth Building, London South Bank University

Programme

Paper Session 1 - Educational Inclusion: Difference and Diversity

Mr Raphael Richards
Dr Uvanney Maylor
Dr Vanita Sundaram
Alison Wilde
Ms Sarah Chipperfield

BME Inclusion: Reducing Fixed Term Exclusion
Recognising and including Black children in primary schools and the curriculum
'Its just them, not us'. Doing research with children designated as having SEN: identity, agency and voice
The Effect of Group Diversity on Learning in a University-Based Foundation Course

Paper Session 2 - Policy, Practice and Social Justice

Ms Julia Long
Ms Elaine Hawkins
Dr Val Gillies
Dr Yvonne Robinson
Ms Sarah Cemlyn
Dr Hazel Lawson
Dr Ruth Boyask
Sue Waite

'It makes me feel like nothing': Young women, exclusion and social (in)justice in the age of porn
Reading between the lines
Including and excluding: exploring gendered and racialised constructions of risk and vulnerability in the classroom
Promoting redistribution, recognition and representation for Gypsies and Travellers
The subjective and specific in conceptualisations of difference: implications for policy

Plenary Speaker Emeritus Professor Jeffrey Weeks

'Sexualities, Diversities and Social Justice'

Paper Session 3 - Professional Experiences of Inclusion

Prof Hilary Sommerlad
Mr Ben Raikes
Mr Robin Kiteley
Dr Chris Allen
Nicki Matharoo-Woods

Diversity and Exclusion in the solicitors' profession: reflections on strategies to enhance the employability of 'outsiders'
Picturing Diversity: A Resource for Student Police Officers
Towards greater inclusiveness? A critical review of the 'religion or belief' equality strand
'An Empirical Study of Young Asian Peoples' Perceptions of Racist Violence and Harassment in Southampton

Nicki Matharoo-Woods

Towards greater inclusiveness? A critical review of the 'religion or belief' equality strand
'An Empirical Study of Young Asian Peoples' Perceptions of Racist Violence and Harassment in Southampton

Nicki Matharoo-Woods